The Coverdale Rec Centre, 50 Runnymede Road in Riverview was the scene for a Holistic Fair with the goal of acquainting members of the community with Complimentary Holistic Care practices. Approximately 220 people took advantage of the opportunity to participate in this event while taking in demonstrations & a chance to have a one-on-one with a Holistic Provider. There were 32 vendors on-site selling teas, crafts, art, etc. as well as Healers & Readers. The event is held by Steve Clayton & Kim Hutchinson, a husband-and-wife team of naturopaths & this was the second occasion for this type of Fair. The couple created Clayhut in 2008 in order to offer heart-based holistic care to people & animals. They believe in treating the whole being, not just the symptom, & doing so without causing a host of detrimental side-effects. Most of all, Clay & Kim love to teach people how to heal themselves. A donation of $333 was made to the Riverview Boys & Girls Club from the proceeds of the day's remunerations. The next date is scheduled for March 3, 2012 & the hope is to repeat this event every six months. Check out their website: www.clayhuthealing.ca
